

Tentative 2015 – 2016 Global Health Electives at WVU

Country	Number of Students Doing Overseas Rotation	Comments
Barbuda	2 – 4	- Primary Care; Emergency Medicine - April
Brazil	2 – 4	- Outpatient Clinic - Boat trip to indigenous colony - April
China	2 – 4	- No special language skill needed - Variety of electives available - April
Fiji	2 – 4	- No special language skills needed - Primary Care; Emergency Medicine - April
Guatemala (San Lucas Toliman Mission)	2 – 4	- Spanish very helpful, but not required - Primary Care, especially Pediatrics
Italy	2 (maximum)	- Very helpful to have some Italian skills; study basics ahead of time - Broad exposure to how medicine is practiced in San Giovanni, Fiore (Southern Italy) - Rural - April
Oman	2 – 4	- Surgery or Community/Family Medicine - February
Paraguay	2 – 4	- Spanish very helpful, but not required - Hospital setting with variety of electives available (including call service) - February or April (preferably April due to hot climate)

Programs Affiliated with WVU	Number of Students Doing Overseas Rotation	Comments
Global Health Learning Opportunities (GHLO)	No limit	- Program part of AAMC - Multiple countries offered - Separate application process  ( https://www.aamc.org/services/ghlo )

Other Possible Sites	Number of Students Doing Overseas Rotation	Comments
Child Family Health International (CFHI)	No limit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Nonprofit organization that provides educational Global Health Programs that allow participants to build skills</li> <li>- Insight working alongside local physicians and public health experts in developing countries</li> <li>- www.cfhi.org</li> </ul>
Ghana	2 – 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Pediatrics; Obstetrics; Surgery; Emergency Medicine</li> <li>- 125-bed mission hospital in Nalerigu, Ghana located in rural “bush” area (Northeastern Ghana)</li> </ul>
SALUD Program	No limit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Program part of AmeriSpan</li> <li>- Rotations arranged in Spanish speaking countries to help learn the language and do some medical experiences</li> <li>- http://www.amerispan.com/salud_medical_spanish_programs/</li> </ul>