REPEAT ANNOUNCEMENTS

LGBTQ ADVOCACY & INCLUSION WEEK INVITATION: October 8-12: daily noon lectures, multiple Grand Rounds Speakers, and a SafeZone Training. We have confirmed nationally prominent speakers for a variety of lecture topics. The week is being organized by the WVU SOM SHAPE group, Pediatrics, General Surgery, Emergency Medicine, and the WVU LGBTQ+ Center.

FMIG Family Medicine Interest Group will have its next meeting on October 15th at 12pm in room 2118. There will be a panel of MS4's/Family Medicine Residents who can take any questions that students may have and talk about their experiences in the field of Family Medicine. Please sign up here!

SERVICE AND LEARNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

Shoe Collection Drive

Support Morgantown Dance and sustainable practices by donating your gently worn new or used shoes. Drop off your spare shoes in the box in the Mountainlair or at Morgantown Dance Studio in the Mountaineer Mall on Greenbag Road now through October 31st.

Morgantown Dance is a non-profit organization that supports community dance productions for all. Funds raised will be used for studio improvements and shoes collected will support micro-enterprises in developing nations.

I DONUT Run 0.5K Oct 28th to Support Operation Welcome Home

Genesis Healthcare and Operation Welcome Home invite you to participate their first ever 0.5K event on Sunday, October 28th from 2pm-5pm at Operation Welcome Home in Mylan Park in Morgantown. All paid participants will receive a t-shirt and will enjoy a donut power-up mid race. There will be Halloween family friendly activities and the event is pet friendly! Check out the Facebook page "I Donut Run 0.5k" and register online at <https://genesishealthcare.redpodium.com/genesis-05k-sponsoring-operation-welcome-home> All proceeds benefit Operation Welcome Home, an official partner of the Center for Service and Learning.

Student Organization Sponsors Needed for Blood Drives

The American Red Cross, an official partner of the Center for Service and Learning, seeks student organizations to help sponsor blood drives on or around campus; students will receive service credit for any recruitment or participation. Organizations would be responsible for recruitment of donors and volunteers for the blood drives. Contact Lauren Thomas at lauren.thomas3@redcross.org or phone 681-209-2782.
